1. Additional Non-Instructional Day – Friday, January 8, 2021

On November 13, 2020, Manitoba Education announced that 3 additional non-instructional days would be added to the school year calendar – two prior to the Christmas break, and one after the break.

Pine Creek School Division has designated as our third non-instructional day. All staff will attend as usual, but there will be no school for students. Monday, January 11, 2021 will be a Day 3, and the remainder of the school year calendar will be unchanged.

2. January Remote Learning Period

From January 4 to January 15, 2021, students in Grades 7 to 12 will move to remote learning. Plans at this time call for regular in-person classroom instruction to resume in schools on January 18, 2021. Alternate day programming continues for students in Grades 9-12 (WMCI and MCI).

During this period, regular in-person classroom learning will continue for Kindergarten to Grade 6 students, as well as for any Grades 7 to 12 students with special needs who require accommodation in a school or classroom setting.
